OGDEN CITY.

MONDAY MARCH 21, 1887.

THE CITY FATHERS.

Considering the Welfare of the Junction City.

The Ogden City Council met in regular session on Friday, Mayor Eccles and Alderman West being absent, having gone with the State President to Pueblo to interview John Taylor and George Q. Cannon. Alderman Dee was called to the chair.

Sundry petitions were considered that are unimportant.

Councilor Boyle raised a breeze because the minutes failed to show how Job Pingree had received a vote of thanks and the support of a part of the Council. The minutes were amended.

The report of the quarantine physician that bad water was the main cause of the few cases of diphtheria that existed caused W. N. Schilling and others to urgently seek after the city water.

Alderman Reeve got off another shot at the practice of allowing a Street Supervisor to have teams working on the streets to the exclusion of those belonging to more needy people. He reported much good work done on the streets.

Councilor Smith made a green report of the Brown condition of Lessor Park. Five more dollars were left for the $20 to hold back Mrs. Leavitt from suing the city for damages.

The usual bill was allowed and the city police and other brethren rejoiced in the "addition division and silence" practice, and the Council adjourned for two weeks.

General Notes.

J. P. Jones of the Troy Steam Laundry, is constantly putting in new machinery for laundry purposes.

Giesey & Spargo have our acknowledgments for literary courtesies of the week.

Mr. E. J. Wagner, the clothier on the east side of Main street, has been resolved to settle permanently in Ogden, which he considers the most promising location. His family will follow him in a few weeks.

The sturdy old one-armed veteran, Mr. Thomas Lutz, watchman, celebrated the 60th anniversary of his birthday, on the 19th instant. He looks as hale and hearty as he did long years ago, when an accident on a Fourth of July cannonade deprived him of one of his limbs.

Persons desirous of purchasing real estate will do well to grapple time and opportunity by the forelock. Great bargains are still in the market, such as the handsome and thoroughly well appointed mansion on Spring street, occupied by Mr. Isadore Marks, the property of Mr. Percival J. Barakat.

The other day James Horrocks sold twenty-one feet of land on Fifth street, between Main and Young, to Reese Towell. In a few weeks a couple of fine brick stores will be erected there. Thus Ogden grows.

Lamoni Griss, one of our rising young merchants, has purchased a piece of land near South street. By the way, his two-story brick block on Fifth street is going up in conjunction with that of Willard Kay.

It is not pleasing, but, nevertheless, a "solid fact," that there exists some dissension, or at least difference of opinion, among certain of the loyal citizens concerning the desirability or undesirability of their taking the oath under the new Edmunds-Tucker law. Of course, everyone has a right to his own opinion and discretion, but it does not pay to fall out about so small a thing. The brethren's example of "civility" ought to be a lamp to our feet.

The school elections will take place in July, as I wrote you before, and not in August, as your proof-reader made it appear.

Graveling on Fifth street, under the Peacock plan, is being pushed ahead vigorously.

The Chapman House looks as pretty as a pink with its new coat of paint and varnish and other embellishments.

Mr. McLaren Boyle, of the great furniture firm of Boyle & Co., in the East, visiting the leading manufacturers.

The plank sidewalks down to the depot are in a lamentably tottering condition. A few kegs of nails or spikes might be very appropriately applied to their regeneration. Or at least drive down what nails there are left in the old rickety lumber.

Who is to be our next city attorney? That is the question. A certain faction of the People's party are in favor of Nathan Tanner, Jr., and others are as bitterly opposing this selection, hence the present deadlock. Meanwhile Hon. W. R. White occupies the position de facto, Hon. R. K. Williams being the titular incumbent. There's more "glory" than money in the office, anyhow, hence I don't think anybody is very badly scrambling for it.

We have had a real nice, quiet, sunny, promenade Sunday, just the day for healthful and joyful out-of-town drives and rides.

The constantly increasing popularity of the Baptist Sabbath school was again exemplified yesterday, when the attendance was over 100, and the collection from the little ones' mites aggregated between $2 and $3. Under Rev. F. Barnett and Superintendent Lindley the school is prosperous.

I've received a prospectus of the First International Congress of Societies and Friends of Cremation, to be held at Milan, Italy, next September. Amongst the list of members, notice came from New York, Ontario, Valparaiso, New Orleans, San Francisco, St. Louis and other points on the western hemisphere. The affair is likely to prove of universal interest, involving grave questions.

Win. Van Dyke has come to town again, after a visit to his friends in Salt Lake City.

Is buying your coal always secure the best. The Pleasant and secure coal stand at the head. For sale at $12.50, Burton & Co., No. 145 Main street.

Cigars! Cigars! When you want to smoke and desire a cigar, you must go to Sam Levy's White International Cigar Factory, where you can get anything in the smoker's line at prices that are very low.

Mark McKinnis' Livery Stable, Main street, north of Walker House. A first class, fully equipped establishment in every particular.

C. B. Payson

Has moved his Cigar Manufactory and Tobacco Emporium into Buchmiller's Block, on the west side of Main street, nearly opposite the postoffice, where he will be pleased to accommodate his old customers and make many more new friends.
